Note: You cannot designate beneficiaries online if you name an irrevocable beneficiary.

WHEN DO I USE THIS FORM?

Use this form to tell us who you want to be the beneficiary of the balances in your TIAA-CREF accounts. You can change your beneficiaries at any time by completing this form.

A beneficiary can be an individual, an institution, a trust, or your estate. (Naming an estate can limit the options available to your heirs. Please call us before choosing this option.) Beneficiaries can also be the children of the beneficiaries that you list on this form. You can choose primary beneficiaries and contingent beneficiaries. Your primary beneficiaries receive benefits when you die. If no primary beneficiary is living, the benefits become payable to your contingent beneficiaries. If none of the beneficiaries are living at the time of your death, the benefits go to your estate.

YOUR CHECKLIST

- Provide all the personal information requested and choose your beneficiaries.
- Remember to sign and date this form in Section 4.
- Complete the “Additional Requirements Based on Marital Status” section. If you are single, complete section 5A; if you are married and have not designated your spouse as a primary beneficiary of at least 50% of the benefit, or the percentage required by your plan, your spouse must complete Section 5B in front of a notary public or your contributing employer’s plan representative. NOTE: Under federal law, if you are under age 35, you cannot complete a Spousal Waiver (Section 5B) unless your plan provides otherwise. Even if your plan does allow you to complete a Spousal Waiver, you must complete another Spousal Waiver once you reach age 35. We will notify you at that time.
- If applicable, attach a signed and dated page to list special provisions for passing on benefits to children of a deceased beneficiary. Label the provision “Payment to children of a deceased beneficiary” and specify if it applies to a primary or contingent beneficiary.

If it applies to a primary beneficiary:

If your primary beneficiary is also deceased at your death, the benefits will instead be paid to his or her children. Your contingent beneficiaries would receive benefits only if your primary beneficiary and his or her children have also died.

If it applies to a contingent beneficiary:

If your primary beneficiary is not living at your death, benefits will be payable to your contingent beneficiaries. If a contingent beneficiary of yours is also deceased at the time of your death, this individual’s children would share those benefits equally.

- Mail all pages of your completed form to: TIAA-CREF, P.O. Box 1259, Charlotte, NC 28201. (Sorry, we can’t accept faxed forms.)

KEY INFORMATION TO CONSIDER

4. SIGN YOUR FORM

I, the undersigned, agree that:

- All prior beneficiary designations and methods of payment requested for the annuities indicated on this "Designating Beneficiaries" form will be revoked, and any benefits due by reason of my death will be payable to the beneficiary(ies) named on this form.
- I understand that this form is subject to all of the terms and conditions of the annuities and as described in the cover page provided with this form.
- I request that any provision that requires the annuities to be submitted for endorsement of this change be waived.
- I reserve the right to make further changes to my beneficiary designations. However, if I previously named an irrevocable beneficiary for any benefits, I will need to obtain a consent or release from the beneficiary before a change can be made.
- I understand that if I elect to have this designation apply to all my referenced annuities, it will apply ONLY to those issued as of the date this form is accepted by TIAA-CREF.
- I understand that if any or all of my accumulation for which this designation applies is attributable to contributions under a retirement or tax-deferred annuity plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) of 1974, as amended, and I have been credited with an hour of service or paid leave under the plan after August 22, 1984 or as provided for by the terms of my non-ERISA-governed retirement plan, then my right to exclude naming my spouse as a primary beneficiary for at least 50% of these death benefits (or the required amount, if greater) is subject to my spouse's consent.

Your spouse has the right to receive a survivor benefit of a least 50% of your account balance if your employer's retirement plan is subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). If the plan is not subject to ERISA, your spouse is entitled to the percentage specified by the plan. Therefore, your spouse must consent to give up, or waive, this right if you choose to name someone else as the beneficiary for more than 50% (or the amount specified by the plan) of your account balance.

5. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS BASED ON MARITAL STATUS

5A. IF YOU ARE SINGLE, COMPLETE THIS SECTION

Check the box if you are not married.

I am not married.

5B. IF YOU ARE MARRIED

This section does not need to be completed if you are single or you named your spouse as primary beneficiary for at least 50% of the death benefit.

The date of your spouse's signature must be the same or later than the date you sign section 4.

Consent by Spouse (Must Be Witnessed)

With this consent I am voluntarily and irrevocably giving up my right to a qualified preretirement survivor death benefit. I recognize that any preretirement death benefit payable under these annuities or the mutual funds will be paid to the beneficiaries as described in this form.
